INT: Office of Otto Crankengear, CEO of the Maker Fun Factory.

CLARK CAVERN
Excuse me, Mr. Crankengear

MR. CRANKENGEAR
Clark, come in here you genius inventor, you! What's going on in that big brain of yours?

CLARK CAVERN
Well, you see sir, it's been almost a year since you hired me to run the invention program here at the Maker Fun Factory.

MR. CRANKENGEAR
Best decision I ever made. Once I saw that Fall Stopper of yours, I knew you were special. You've got IT! Look, I've got mine right here. Used it this morning in the shower. Could have taken a nasty fall, but this baby saved the day.

CLARK CAVERN
Thing is, sir, I'm a cave guy and underground is where I belong.

MR. CRANKENGEAR
Of course you do. I don't know why you stayed here so long. You should quit this job and focus on what you do best. But you've got to find your replacement before you go. You can't leave old Crankengear in the lurch.

CLARK CAVERN
I don't know, Mr. Crankengear, I've never hired anybody before.

MR. CRANKENGEAR
Nothing to it. A toddler could do it. Just post an ad on that Internet thingy and, quick-as-a-pickle, you're done! I'm interviewing a new director of communications this afternoon.

CLARK CAVERN
But...

Mr. Crankengear ignores him. Clark Cavern walks away as he keeps talking.

MR. CRANKENGEAR
You know, this fall stopper is really amazing. I'm gonna get a bunch of them. I'll keep one in the car. One in the office. I could even put one in the elevator - I'm always falling down in there!

INT: Clark Cavern's office at the Maker Fun Factory.

I wonder who that could be?

Clark opens the door to reveal a huge line of people waiting to be interviewed.

CLARK CAVERN
Mountain climbing, eh! Have you ever met Trek Rockrambler?

IAN VICTOR
Met him, I sat next to him in kindergarten. I even climbed Everest with him a couple years ago.

CLARK CAVERN
Well, that's as good a recommendation as you'll ever get. He's my cousin. Congratulations, you've got the job.

INT: Office of Mr. Crankengear.

MR. CRANKENGEAR
As my new director of communications, what would you do to get the word out about the Maker Fun Factory VBS at Bluff Park UMC?
